OFFICE OF PETITIONS

In re Application of	:
GANESAN et al.	:
Application No. 09/849,979	:	DECISION ON APPLICATION
Filed: May 8, 2001	:	FOR
Atty. Docket No. 23952-0127	:	PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT

This is a decision on the "REQUEST FOR PATENT TERM ADJUSTMENT RECONSIDERATION," filed December 14, 2007. Applicants request correction of the patent term adjustment from 502 days to 1,012 days partly on the basis of the Office taking in excess of three years to issue the patent.

The application for patent term adjustment is GRANTED to the extent indicated herein.

The Office has updated the PAIR screen to reflect that the correct patent term adjustment determination at the time of the mailing of the notice of allowance is 572 days. A copy of the updated PAIR screen, showing the correct determination, is enclosed.

To the extent that the instant application for patent term adjustment requests reconsideration of the patent term adjustment as it relates to the Office's failure to issue the patent within 3 years of the filing date, a decision is being held in abeyance until after the actual patent date. Knowledge of the actual date the patent issues is required to calculate the amount, if any, of additional patent term patentee is entitled to for Office failure to issue the patent within three years. See 37 CFR 1.703(b).

Applicants are given TWO (2) MONTHS from the issue date of the patent to file a written request for reconsideration of the patent term adjustment for Office failure to issue the patent within three years. A copy of this decision should accompany the request. Applicants may seek such consideration without payment of an additional fee. However, as to all other bases for seeking reconsideration of the patent term adjustment indicated in the patent, all requirements of § 1.705(d) must be met. Requests for reconsideration on other bases must be timely filed and must include payment of the required fee.¹

On September 14, 2007, the Office mailed a Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154(b) in the above-identified application. Applicants were advised that the patent term adjustment to date is 502 days. In response, applicants timely² filed the instant request for reconsideration of the patent term adjustment. Applicants request that the patent term adjustment be corrected to 1,012 days. Applicants dispute the reduction pursuant to 37 CFR 1.704(b) of 71 days. Further, applicants assert that the Office's delay pursuant to 37 CFR 1.703(e) should be calculated as 590 days, not 591 days.

The application history has been reviewed and it has been determined that the initial patent term adjustment of 502 days is incorrect. The Office mailed a nonfinal Office action on August 19, 2003. However, the Office action was not mailed to the correspondence address of record. The record supports a conclusion that this was due to an error on the part of the Office in mailing the nonfinal Office action to applicants. Accordingly, a letter restarting the period for reply (and re-mailing the Office action) was mailed on October 29, 2003. Applicants' response filed January 29, 2004, was received within the three-month period after the date of the mailing of the Office action as re-mailed on October 29, 2003. Accordingly, a period of reduction of 71 days is not warranted.

¹ Applicants' assertion that the patent term adjustment should be reduced for filing amendments on February 27, 2007, and May 3, 2007, after the mailing of the notice of allowance under 37 CFR 1.704(c)(10) is premature and will not be addressed in the present petition under 37 CFR 1.705(b).

² Office records indicate that the issue fee payment was received on December 14, 2007.

Additionally, applicants aver that the Office's delay pursuant to 37 CFR 1.703(e) should be calculated as 590 days, not 591 days. Applicants assert that the calculation of patent term adjustment was calculated using March 1, 2006, as the date of the final decision by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences instead of February 28, 2006. The record supports applicants' assertion that the Decision on Appeal was mailed on February 28, 2006. Thus, the period of adjustment pursuant to 37 CFR 1.703(e) is 590 days, the number of days beginning on the date on which a notice of appeal to the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences was filed, July 19, 2004, and ending on the date of a final decision in favor of applicants by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interference, February 28, 2006.

In view thereof, the patent term adjustment at the time of the mailing of the Notice of Allowance is 572 days (605 days of Office delay - 33 days of applicant delay).

Applicants are reminded that if an application is entitled to an adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154(b)(1)(B), the entire period during which the application was pending (except for periods excluded under 35 U.S.C. 154(b)(1)(B)(i)-(iii)), and not just the period beginning three years after the actual filing date of the application, is the period of delay under 35 U.S.C. 154(b)(1)(B) in determining whether periods of delay overlap under 35 U.S.C. 154(b)(2)(A). Thus, any days of delay for Office issuance of the patent more than three years after the filing date of the application which overlap with the days of patent term adjustment accorded prior to the issuance of the patent will not result in any additional patent term adjustment. See 35 U.S.C. 154(b)(1)(B), 35 U.S.C. 154(b)(2)(A), and 37 CFR § 1.703(f). See also Revision of Patent Term Extension and Patent Term Adjustment Provisions; Final Rule, 69 Fed. Reg. 21704 (April 22, 2004).

The Office acknowledges submission of the $200.00 fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.18(e). No additional fees are required.

The application file is being forwarded to the Office of Data Management for issuance of the patent.

Telephone inquiries specific to this matter should be directed to Christina Tartera Donnell, Senior Petitions Attorney, at (571) 272-3211.
